Perez Blanks Murphy

Richard Perez struck out 17 batters and pitched a one-hitter as Bishop Montgomery clubbed Murphy, 11-0, Friday. The victory was the sixth straight for the Knights in Camino Real League play.

Second place Crespi extended itself to 5-1 with a 3-2 win over St. Monica's. Permin Lasuen (4-2) also beat St. Bernard's, 3-2.

Montgomery got 14 hits, including a home run by Darrell Mickelbury.

Chuck Bongard homered in a 9-1 win over St. Bernard's on Wednesday. Chuck Desiderio pitched his fourth victory of the campaign.

Last Tuesday's rainout against Crespi will be replayed April 26, according to Montgomery school officials.

Chicago Invades L.A. For Soccer

The Chicago Spurs, who may well be the roughest team in professional soccer, boast a tremendous list of talent for their afternoon game with the Los Angeles Toros in Memorial Coliseum today.

It will be the final outing for the teams before the National Professional Soccer League race begins next Sunday. The game starts at 1 p.m., following an 11:30 a.m. Youth Soccer Cup match between Lynwood and Pico Rivera.

Chicago is expected to field one of the league's top teams, in spite of losses of 2-1 to California and 1-0 to St. Louis. The Spurs roster includes many of the world's greatest players. Heading the list is Horst Szymaniak of Germany, who in the last five years was twice picked as one of the world's best 11 players.

Horses Race At Alamitos

For the first time in 12 years, racing at Los Alamitos is conducted on a five-day week basis. The track will be dark on Sundays and Mondays, except Monday, May 8. The three big events scheduled during the meeting will be the $35,000-added Los Alamitos Derby, the $30,000 Los Alamitos Quarter Horse Championship and the $25,000 Juvenile Championship. Charlie Smith, nine-time Los Alamitos riding champion, tops the jockey list that also includes Zack Collins, Jack Robinson, William Strauss, Ronnie Banks, John Kanis, Powell Crosby, Harley Crosby and Robert Adair to name a few.

Information regarding the course or the Men's and Ladies' clubs may be obtained by calling the County Recreation Department at 749-6911, extension 527.

TV's Alvy Moore Will Face "Queen"

Alvy Moore likes to umpire Little League games. He is better known, however, as "Hank" on the TV show, "Green Acres."

When Alvy heard a group of umpires had challenged the "Queen and Her Maids" to a softball game at Torondo Little League Field next Sunday, Alvy wanted in on the deal.

The Queens and Her Maids are a four-man girls softball team that spends the summer months touring the United States and Canada. Their ages are 12 to 15. What Alvy Moore may not know about the girls is that Rosie Beard, the pitcher, is the most skilled ladies softball pitcher in the world.

The game will help raise funds for the Little League District 26 umpiring program. Tournament umpires with sufficient playing talent are being organized by Bob Hultgren to oppose the "Queen and Her Maids."

A half-hour pre-game show will feature routines by Alvy Moore and Rosie. She will offer a prize to anyone who can hit one of her pitches during three swings.

Admission to the spectacular will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for youngsters 6 through 12.

Big Bats Cool Off At North

Coach Jim O'Brien of North High's defending champion baseball team has a right to be confused. His Saxons whipped Santa Monica, 18-8, Wednesday, and lost to the same Vikings the next day, 2-0.

The split left North with a 4-4 record after four weeks of the season. The Spartans return to action against North during the upcoming Bay League campaign.

Tuesday's game will be at North and Thursday's repeat is at South.

South comes off its bye week with a 4-2 record. Redondo leads the Bay League with a 5-1 record during the week the Hawks dumped Mira Costa twice, 13-3 and 6-1.

After losing its first two games Inglewood has won four straight to tie South for second place.

Colt League To Sign Up

Torrance Colt League tryouts and registration will be next Saturday at 9:30 a.m. on the Torrance High School baseball field. The entrance is on Crenshaw Blvd.

A $5 registration fee will be charged. Proof of birth date is required.

Tartars Nip Foe Twice

Torrance High sits atop the Sky League baseball standings with a 5-1 record, having turned back Morningside by 4-2 and 3-2 scores Wednesday and Friday.

The Tartars are one game ahead of Rolling Hills and Beverly Hills.

In Friday's win over Morningside, Don Lucarelli and Bart Johnson combined for the pitching win. They scattered 10 hits. Torrance got only four hits in winning, but the team put together two runs in the fourth and one in the fifth.

Beverly Hills (4-2) invades Torrance Park for the first of two games against the Tartars Tuesday. The second game will be Thursday at Beverly Hills.

The Normans downed Leuzinger, 6-3, Friday.

Mustangs Move Up

The Wild Mustangs, Torrance slo-pitch champs for 1966, will compete for the first time in the West Coast Slo-Pitch League which begins play April 14th.

Last year the Wild Mustangs won 45 of 48 games, losing each time by one-run.

The Mustangs won the Navy Armed Forces Day Tournament at Terminal Island last May, defeating Torrancia's Tappa Keggas in the finals. They won the Torrance City Championship against 40 recreational league teams and the Tuesday night Summer League at Redondo Beach.

The team was runner-up in the Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation (SCMAF) Tournament and ended the year by winning the Torrance City Winter Championship.

In preparation for the opening of the West Coast Slo-Pitch season Friday against El Segundo's Hughes Hustlers at Alondra Park, the Wild Mustangs have won 5 of 6 practice games.

The Mustangs lost in the first of two games against the Gardena Royals by a score of 7-3, but won the second 4-1.

The Gardena Royals are the defending West Coast Slo-Pitch Champs.

"We expect to be a contender even though, it's our first year in this tough West Coast competition," said Dr. Rod Stetson, team manager.

Playing for the Mustangs are Claude Ragsdale, Bruno Giacomini, Cal Eubanks, Chuck Schoendienst, Bill Reinert, Bill Heisner, Al Everley, Merv Mexico, Bill Price, Forrest Hunt, Russ Bierley, Vic Ordaz, Andy Meyer, Steve Giacomini, Roger Gregerson, and John Emerson.

Long ball hitters include Giacomini, Ragsdale, Reinert, Hunt, Bierley, Schoendienst, and Meyer. Eubanks and Schoendienst are the team's pitchers.

The Tappa Keggas, managed by Chuck Ryan, again will also represent Torrancia in the league.

Torrance Park will be the home field for both the Wild Mustangs and the Tappa Keggas. A doubleheader will be played each Friday night at 8 p.m.

Participating West Coast Slo-Pitch teams outside of Torrance include the Los Angeles Old Timers, Santa Ana Rebels, Gardena Royals, Manhattan Beach Knights, El Segundo's Hughes Hustlers, and Lomita Old Pros managed by Bo Palica.

This will be the fourth year the Wild Mustangs have played together. The team was the surprise 1964 Torrance City Champs in its first year of competition.

EL CAMINO GOLFER... Terry Titus is one of four top players on this year's Warrior golf team which is defending the Metropolitan Conference title. Titus, who was a four-year letter-winner in golf at Hawthorne High, also lettered in gymnastics.
